 - This information should be emailed to:
papers@congresosantateresa2015.es
5. The papers selected by the Scientific Committee will be eligible for oral presentation and for publication in the Congress proceedings.
6. The oral presentation or reading of a paper is not transferrable. At least one of the authors must be present to deliver the paper.

B. PUBLICATION GUIDELINES FOR SELECTED PAPERS

The written version of papers ready for publication should be sent to the Congress organisers at papers@congresosantateresa2015.es before 30th June 2015. Files should be sent as an email attachment or, as a Winzip or Winrar file if necessary. Files should be named as follows: Surname(s)-First Name(s) (yymmdd).

Example:

García Gómez-Pedro (150420).

I. Text

1. Papers should be submitted as Word documents (Windows or Mac). Font: Times New Roman; size: 12; Line spacing: 1.5. Any quote more than three lines long should appear as a separate paragraph (font: Times New Roman; size: 11; Line spacing: 1). Footnotes should be in Times New Roman; size: 10; Line spacing: 1.
2. Papers should not exceed 45,000 characters including spaces, boxes, tables and footnotes. (15 pages, approximately).
3. The first page should contain the following information: Title in bold, author(s)'s name(s), institution, postal address and email address. This should be followed by an abstract (500 characters with spaces) and keywords (4 max) both in Spanish and in English.
4. Papers should contain footnotes at the bottom of the page and the bibliography should be included at the end.
5. Tables, figures and illustrations should be numbered consecutively and should be included in the text.
6. Headings:

HEADING 1 BOLD ALL CAPS

Heading 2 Bold lower case

Heading 3 Italic lower case

7. Quotes:

Direct quotes longer than three lines should be indented with a left margin of 2 cm, while the right margin should be aligned to the rest of the paper. Inverted commas are not required. There should be a blank paragraph (single line) before and after the quote.

Parts of the text omitted in a quote should be indicated by [...].

For quotes included in the body of the text, the Spanish quote marks «...» should be used. If a quote must be included within the first quote, inverted commas "... " should be used. For all other needs, authors should use '... '.

The spelling of all words and titles should be modernised, except in the case of phonetic relevance or if modernising the spelling does not make sense.

II. Referencing

For bibliographic references within the text or the footnotes

Markers for footnotes should appear before all lower punctuation (commas, full stops, semicolons) and after inverted commas, brackets and other punctuation marks (exclamation marks, question marks etc). The marker should be superscript.

A footnote should not contain the reference to a second footnote as numbers can be altered at the stage of text editing.

1. On the first appearance of a reference or work:

III. Bibliography

1. All references in footnotes should appear, with a complete reference, within the Bibliography at the end of the paper. These should be arranged in alphabetical order, in a single block (without distinguishing between primary and secondary material).
2. In the case where two or more works of a particular author are cited, these will be presented in chronological order, from the oldest to the most recent.

Examples:

PÉREZ MAGALLÓN, Jesús, En torno a las ideas literarias de Mayans, Alicante, Instituto de Cultura «Juan Gil-Albert», Diputación de Alicante, 1991.

—, «Gregorio Mayans en la historiografía literaria española», Nueva Revista de Filología Hispánica, XXXVIII, 1 (1990), pp. 247-263.

—, «Góngora y su ambigua apropiación en el tiempo de los novatores», Criticón, 103-104 (2008), pp. 119-130.

3. The literary works of an author should be arranged alphabetically (omitting any articles), and they should follow the chronological date of the edition. Collective works should be ordered by the name of the editor, coordinator etc. Anonymous works should be arranged in alphabetical order of the title. The principles above also apply to anonymous texts.

Examples:

CALDERÓN DE LA BARCA, Pedro, El alcalde de Zalamea. Edición crítica de las dos versiones (Calderón de la Barca y Lope de Vega, atribuida), ed. de Juan Manuel Escudero, Madrid-Frankfurt am Main, Iberoamericana-Vervuert, 1998.
